Overview

The Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) training programme is designed to meet the needs of the professional who wishes to pursue the world's premier certification in Internal Auditing. Giving value in all aspects of an Organization, a CIA can come not only from an accounting background.

CIA candidates are required to complete 24 months of internal auditing experience or its equivalent (which means experience in audit/assessment disciplines, such as external auditing, quality assurance, etc.).

Related business professions (such as accounting, law and finance) can be substituted for one year of experience, but candidates will not be certified until the experience requirement has been fully met.

Candidates are required to complete the program certification process within a maximum three years from application approval.

If a candidate has not completed the certification process within three years, all fees and exam parts will be forfeited.

Part 1 – Essentials of Internal Auditing

125 questions | 2.5 hours (150 minutes)

The CIA exam Part 1 is well aligned with The IIA's International Professional Practices Framework (IPPF) and includes six domains covering the foundation of internal auditing; independence and objectivity; proficiency and due professional care; quality assurance and improvement programs; governance, risk management, and control; and fraud risk. Part one tests candidates' knowledge, skills, and abilities related to the International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing, particularly the Attribute Standards (series 1000, 1100, 1200, and 1300) as well as Performance Standard 2100.

Part 2 – Practice of Internal Auditing

100 questions | 2.0 hours (120 minutes)

The CIA exam Part 2 includes four domains focused on managing the internal audit activity, planning the engagement, performing the engagement, and communicating engagement results and monitoring progress. Part 2 tests candidates' knowledge, skills, and abilities particularly related to Performance Standards (series 2000, 2200, 2300, 2400, 2500, and 2600) and current internal audit practices.
